

University of Basel, Institute for Social Anthropology

Ethnomethodology

Analysing the practice of everyday life

Semester Program 2006

date	topic	speaker
10.4.06	Introduction: A seminar as a social setting	Till Förster
17.4.06	Easter Monday
24.4.06 8–12 a.m.	The roots of ethnomethodology I: Verstehende Soziologie (Weber) The roots of ethnomethodology II: Phenomenology (Schütz)	Balz Alter / Sina Plenker
1.5.06	Labour Day
8.5.06	Key questions I: What is taken for granted? Social action and cultural knowledge	Sylvie Schumacher
15.5.06	Key questions III: How to identify “the normal”? Reality disjunctures and interpretive asymmetries	Sarah Stettler Leticia Figueroa
22.5.06	Key questions II: How do we make sense of actions? Indexicality and reflexivity	Martin Jenny (discussant: B. Brühwiler)
29.5.06	Key questions IV: Can talk make things happen? Conversation analysis	Divine Fuh Sandra Jauslin
5.6.06	Pentecost
12.6.06	Ethnomethodological Studies I: Identifying gender and status	Brenda Akpan
19.6.06	Ethnomethodological Studies II: Learning institutional procedures	Miriam Grab
26.6.06	Ethnomethodological Studies III: Imagining online communities	Yasmin Koenigk